MAUNA

bedside table

The floating Mauna bedside table excels in simplicity. Typical for Ertz is the play between vertical and horizontal lines, the presence of a niche (option: left or right) and the possibility to personalise your furniture. You can add a drawer and choose a front in steel, wood or natural stone. Mauna is not just a bedside table for the bedroom. If you hang it in the hallway, you will have a decorative object in which you can conveniently store your belongings.
